

Five Corners & Westgate Study (CEDC)

The Citizens Economic Development Commission, Land Use subcommittee, has commissioned a study of possible uses and redevelopment alternatives for Community Business (BC) zoned properties know as Five Corners (212th St and 84th Ave West) and Westgate Village (SR104 and 100th Ave West). Phase 1 of this study has been conducted by graduate students from the University of Washington, and its Phase 1 report has just been posted on the CEDC website at <http://www.ci.edmonds.wa.us/CitEconDevCommDocs.stm> Go to the bottom of the page.

Phase 2 is now underway, with one round of meetings completed and another set of meetings that will focus on design currently scheduled for March 12.
